Dressage Dressage Rules & Tests | Equestrian Australia

Eventing Eventing Rules & Regulations | Equestrian Australia

Jumping Jumping Rules & Regulations | Equestrian Australia

Show Horse Show Horse | Equestrian Australia

This event will be run under the EA Rules and Regulations, (as defined therein) including the following:

- International Federation for Equestrian Sports (FEI) Code of Conduct for the Welfare of the Horse
- Equestrian Australia (EA) Policies and Procedures including:
 - EA Code of Conduct
 - Helmet Standards

All Event competitors will be deemed to have read and accepted the Conditions of Entry and the rules and regulations attached ('the Rules and Regulations')

The Organising Committee (OC) reserve the right to amend the program, these Conditions of Entry and the Rules and Regulations, or any aspect of the Event at its discretion at any time.

The OC reserves the right to accept or refuse any entry.

Each Discipline has rules and regulations specific to that Discipline, available on the EA website.

Breaches of the Rules, Child Safe Standards, and Member Protection Policy may result in disqualification from the Event and depending on the severity of the offence, the athlete and/or their associates may face disciplinary action.

The OC, Technical Delegate/s, Ground Jury and Officials are responsible for ensuring Horse Welfare guidelines and EA Codes of Conduct are observed.

At the time of entry, you will be required to confirm you have read and agree to the Codes of Conduct.

Disclaimer: These rule references are correct at the time of entry. If they change before the competition, the new rules will be applied

Rider Information

EA Membership

All entrants must have current financial Competitor or Participant membership of Equestrian Australia at the date and time of entry. Entries cannot be accepted without your current membership number.

Entries not complying with membership and registration criteria will be declined.

EA Horse Registration

All horses must have Full or Base EA horse registration.

Qualifications

Riders will need to provide evidence of at least one result at a previous competition (EA affiliated club, show or Interschool) as a horse/rider combination unless entering an entry-level class in the table below.

Incomplete or incorrect qualifications may mean an entry is not accepted. It is encouraged that all combinations are 6 months in training together before entering the competition.

Eventing: MER's are required for CCN1* and CCN2* and one MER at EvA95 & EvA80

Discipline	Level	Qualification
Dressage	Preliminary	Not required
Jumping	65cm	Not required
Led	Mare or Gelding	Not required
Show Horse	All classes	Not Required
Show Hunter	All Classes	Not Required
Eventing	EvA65cm	Not Required

Discipline selections

Combinations entering the Equimillion Competition can enter two disciplines (one per day) across the 3-day of competition. All competitors are required to ensure they are entering classes that are suitable for the horse to compete in. While Equimillion can be an opportunity for the rider to experiment in a new discipline it is required to appropriately prepare their horse for that discipline. The competition format in each discipline is not designed for first timer participation, and entering horses in a new discipline without adequate preparation and training is discouraged.

Competition Divisions at Equimillion

- Youth Junior – Aged 14 to 21 years as at the 30th September 2023
- Amateur – The member is the main rider of the horse on which they are entering, or it is the only horse they ride. Amateur is a member who does not receive money or remuneration for horse related activities, that is, he or she is not a 'professional horseperson'. There are exceptions such as Veterinarians, Stud Owners / Managers, Farriers etc.
- Open Professional – This division is intended for riders who receive part or all of their income (monetary or in kind) through their activities riding, coaching or training horses. This includes sponsored riders.

 A competitor can only choose one competition division for the 3 days of competition.

The OC reserves the right to: Transfer competitors between divisions of a class.

Rider Numbers

All horses will be allocated a Bridle Number for the event. The number must be worn on the left (near) side of the bridle or saddle cloth when out of the stable. If you are competing in Dressage bridle numbers must be worn on both sides of the bridle or saddle cloth. When the horse is not competing the bridle numbers must be attached to the halter. Competitors must provide their own number holders displaying their allocated number.

Competitors in Eventing will be emailed back numbers to be printed for the Cross Country phase.

Bio Security

Entrants, owners or persons in charge of the horse(s) at the Event acknowledge and agree:

- No horses with signs of illness are to be brought onto the grounds.
- No communal horse water troughs will be available at the event. Equipment, including food and water containers is not to be shared between horses.
- Competitors are responsible for cleaning up manure.
- Competitors are required to advise the event organisers immediately if a horse is sick.
- Everyone handling horses should wash or sanitise hands between contacting different horses.

Horse Information

Horse Eligibility

To be eligible to submit a nomination for Equimillion, the horse must meet the following criteria:

- Horse must have been registered with Racing Australia with a microchip and been bred with the intent to race (evidence of race records, trials and/or barrier education and jump outs).
- Brands present on the horse for visual identification and linked with microchip.
- Horse must have officially retired from racing.

All named horses bred in NSW are eligible to compete.

Horses that were not bred in NSW, but meet any of the below criteria will also be eligible to compete:

Horses bred interstate:

- Horse must have been trained, trialled, or raced in NSW.

Horses bred internationally:

- Horse must have been trained, trialled, or raced in NSW.

Unnamed Horses:

- Bred in NSW with the intent to race in NSW.

To assess your horse's eligibility, check out the Retired Thoroughbred Identification Guide here.

Racing NSW Equine Welfare

Racing NSW Minimum Standards and Guidelines of Equine Welfare, which contains compulsory Minimum Standards and also 'best practice' Guidelines for the NSW Thoroughbred Racing Industry. Racing NSW Equine Welfare Program ensures that thoroughbreds that have been domiciled in NSW for the majority of their lives are cared for having regard to appropriate horse welfare standards.

Microchipping

A retired Thoroughbred racehorse entering the competition will have a microchip registered to Racing Australia. The register microchip number is required upon submitting your horse for Nomination, as part of your EA Membership requirements, used to enter classes across the Equimillion Competition, and for Identification purposes on arrival and during the event.

Soundness

All horses competing at Equimillion are required to pass an Arrival Assessment which includes a baseline soundness assessment at the walk. Judges and Officials in all the Equimillion disciplines are authorized to eliminate horses should they feel that they are not appropriately sound for the discipline they are competing in. Lameness may not compete and can be referred to the Event vet.

Medication Control

Medication Control (Swabbing) of horses will be conducted as per EA Medication Control Policy guidelines at this event to protect the welfare of the horses and to ensure a level playing field for all competitors. All winners across the disciplines will be tested, random testing will be conducted on all horses. All positive results will cause disqualification.

Body Condition

Any horse that arrives at Equimillion with a below 2 body score of 5 will consult with a vet on arrival and may not be allowed to compete. Competitors could find it useful to have their vet assess their horses body score prior to Nominating the horse for the competition – link here. Officials in all the Equimillion disciplines are authorized to eliminate horses should they feel that they are not appropriately conditioned for the competition.

Veterinarians

Will be available for the duration of the event.

Welfare Concerns

Those who are on the Racing NSW Excluded list can't compete. Any reports prior, during and or after the Equimillion competition will be investigated. Practices considered to be a welfare concern include but not limited to; inflicting harm, overworking, misuse of training equipment, or malnourished. During competition, officials have the right to order veterinary evaluations of any horse who appears to be unsound or in physical discomfort or distress.

Horse Health Certificates & Vaccination Records

EA Registration paperwork or other evidence of identification is required on check in.

Scratching and Refunds

Nomination fees is non refundable.

Competition Entry Fee:

Any withdrawal of a horse/rider after Sunday 10th September for any reason/medical/veterinary grounds or are classed as being unfit to compete, shall be refunded 50% of the Competition Entry fee, 100% of camping and shavings fees less a $50.00 administration fee. This will be refunded only if a medical/veterinary certificate is received within 48 hours of the notification.

After Friday 22nd September the Competition Entry Fee will NOT be refunded.

Special circumstances may be dealt with on a case by case basis with the OC.

Please notify scratching to info@ensw.org.au.

Reservation of Rights

The Organising Committee reserve the right:

- To cancel any class or event
- To divide any class
- To transfer competitors between sections of the class
- To alter the advertised times or days
- To refuse any entry, with or without stating a reason
- To make additional statements with regards to rules/ processes based on horse welfare and safety

Protest and Complaints

No competitor is to directly approach any judge, steward, course builder or any other official before, during or after the competition with disputes or complaints.

All queries must be made in writing to the organising committee located in Event Square within 30 minutes of the results being posted publicly.

All objections must be made in writing at the Event office to be considered by the Ground Jury and must be accompanied by $1000 which will be returned to the competitor if their protest is upheld. The decision of the Ground Jury will be final.

General questions can be asked in relation to errors and in relation to running the event. These may be directed to the rider's representative.

Competition Information

Number Of Disciplines

Entry into the Equimillion competition allows the combination to enter into two disciplines over the 3-day competition in line with EA National Rule:

1st Selection	Optional second Discipline
Eventing	Jumping
Show Horse	Dressage or Jumping
Jumping	Show Horse, Dressage or Eventing
Dressage	Show Horse or Jumping

Riders may ride more than one horse at the event, however, there must be only one rider per horse.

Prizemoney and Classes

Each discipline will include classes for junior, amateur, and open professional competitors with a total prizemoney of $30,000 per class and prizemoney paid down to 5th place in each class.

If a class has fewer than 3 competitors, the OC reserves the right to cancel the class and allow the competitors to change into a higher rider category.

 Preliminary Dressage, Jumping 65cm, and EvA 65cm will be open to Junior and Amateur only and Advance Dressage, Jumping 110cm and CCN2*-S will be Open classes.

Individual Champions Points

Horse and Rider combinations in the Dressage, Jumping and Show Horse classes will receive points for each phase to calculate the Championship placings.

Points will be allocated from 35 points for 1st place to 1 point for 35th place. Points are awarded only where the combination has completed all divisions/phases of a class without elimination or disqualification.

The points received in each phase are totalled to decide the Class Championship placings.

Eventing Scoring – As per EA National Eventing Rules.

If a horse is eliminated, retired, does not finish, or withdraws from any phase they can not be placed.

Equality In Classes

Equality in classes will be determined by the following:

Jumping - In the event of equality, the combination with the higher ranking in the Competition over two rounds Art 273 3.3 4.3 shall be placed highest.

Dressage – In the event of equality, the Champion will be as per the EA Dressage rules.

The higher total of the collective mark/s, including coefficients, will decide on the placings, should there still be a tie, the rider score will be the final decider.

Show Horse – Show Horse – In the event of an equality of points for Champion, the Ridden Mare/Gelding will be used to split ties. If there is still equality, The Ridden Ladies or Gents Hack and then Led phase will be used.

Eventing – In the event of equality between two or more combinations, the Champion is decided by:

- a) The best cross-country score including penalties for faults at obstacles, time penalties, and any other penalty that the Athlete may have incurred on the cross-country test.
- b) If these are still equality, the champion is decided in favour of the Athlete with the highest positive dressage points.

If there is still equality, please refer to EA Eventing rules 528.1.6 Final Classification Tie (Individual)

Equality in the Championships' will be resolved for places 1st to 5th. If equality cannot be resolved, riders will be awarded equal placing and share points. For example, one combination may be awarded 6th place and receive 30 points, two riders may be awarded 7th place so each will be awarded 28.5 points, then the next placed rider would be awarded 9th and 27 points.

Injury and Liabilities

- Any competitor who falls from their horse MUST be cleared by the Medical Services Provider at the event before they are eligible to ride again.
- As a condition of entry, riders, their connections, and spectators will indemnify Racing NSW and Equestrian Australia, Equestrian NSW and The Sydney International Equestrian Centre against all claims, losses, damages, and legal action howsoever occurring.
- All horse owners and Event competitors will be personally responsible for the damages to any third parties caused by themselves, their employees, their agents, or their animals.

Gear Check

Discipline Rules relating to gear checks must be adhered to as per the discipline rules (links above). EA Stewards will complete the checks either prior to entering the warm-up or at the completion of the test and/or phase.

Dress and Saddlery

- Riders must compete in attire required under EA Rules.
- In the event of hot weather, the OC may permit riders to compete without riding coats.
- A designated EA tagging official will be on site, to apply approved helmet tags in conformance with Rule 538.3.1, which comes into effect from 1 January 2020. All helmets must be tagged in accordance with the EA Helmet tagging policy.
- The EA tag does not verify that the helmet is safe or in working order. It only verifies that the helmet complies with the specific standards as mandated by the EA Eventing Rules.
- Body Protectors are compulsory under EA Eventing Rules and must comply with rule 538.3.1. From 1 January 2020, body protectors will need to be manufactured after 2009 and comply with:
